As you know, the Madison County Board of Supervisors plans to hold a budget workshop at 2:00 PM today. To meet the 10 person limit on meeting attendance, seating for this session will be restricted and many members of the public may not be able to be in the room at that time. In an attempt to make the session available to Madison County residents, it will be live streamed through the internet. The link to the session is here: <https://vimeo.com/400648523>.

Thank you for your understanding as we continue to adjust to meet the “new normal” that COVID-19 virus has imposed on our community.
